Children In Action (CIA)
To provide opportunities and access for children with special needs to be included in regular play activities with children without special needs.

WHO can apply?
Social service organisations or institutions serving children aged 0-18

WHAT must I do?
Plan and implement the activities at inclusive playgrounds between children with and without special needs

WHERE can I sign-up?
Email us at ncss_inclusiveplay@nccs.gov.sg

“Darwisy used to just watch his elder brother, Danish playing at the playground, but with the inclusive playground, they can now play together.”
- Mdadm Ruschidah (Darwisy’s Mummy)
- Darwisy Md Salmi, 7, has cerebral palsy

“I think the biggest thing is interaction because without interaction, we won’t be able to understand them.”
- Nadia B. Ooi, Student Volunteer, Raffles Junior College

“Children in Action programme has encouraged the Muscular Dystrophy Association to organise more play activities for the children with special needs.”
- Shereen Loh
- Executive Director
- Muscular Dystrophy Association Singapore (MDAS)

Customised features such as ramps, wheelchair-accessible merry-go-rounds, allow children with special needs and their non-disabled peers and siblings to play together.
5 inclusive playgrounds in Singapore

1. Along Bishan Road and Ang Mo Kio Ave 1, S$69981
   (10 mins walk from Mc Donalds)

2. 71, West Coast Highway, S$26844
   (next to Mc Donalds)

3. 110 Pasir Ris Road, S$19113

4. Tampines Distillery Park, S$20727

5. 7A, Ghim Moh Road, S$27007

“Children in Action” is a project by the National Council of Social Service to promote an inclusive society for persons with disabilities. www.ncss.org.sg/inclusion